LATE GREAT PLANET CHURCH- The Rise of Dispensationalism-DVD

Many Christians today read their Bibles through the lens of pop-prophecy books like The Late Great Planet Earth and the Left Behind series. They naively believe the prophetic schemes and theological presuppositions expressed in these and other fictional writings represent the doctrinal positions that Christians down through the centuries have embraced. However, that is far from the truth.

Volume One of The Late Great Planet Church: The Rise of Dispensationalism is the first documentary of its kind.

Before Jerusalem Fell - DVD

Dr. Kenneth L. Gentry Jr.

Revelation continues to be a favorite book for Christians today, just as it has been throughout the ages. Its bold drama easily captures our imagination in our visually-oriented culture. But Revelation is no easy book to understand. Dr. Gentry presents a helpful summary of his doctoral dissertation on Revelation's date. He not only highlights fascinating evidence from ancient writers, but from Revelation's text itself.

He presents a concise, clear, and compelling case for a pre-AD 70 composition. Once he points out the clues in the text, a flood of light illuminates the story: John was writing Revelation as a prophetic warning of Jerusalem's coming destruction, which ended the old covenant economy and secured the new covenant church a place in history.

Letters to a Millenarian

Rev. A. Williamson

Premillennialism, and Dispensationalism in particular, lays great stress on the so-called unfulfilled promises of the Abrahamic covenant and insists that the lawful heirs of these promises are the physical descendants of the faithful patriarch, regardless of their own faithlessness and rebellion against God. To the contrary, this little book argues that, just as the true beneficiaries of a dead man's will are identified only by a careful examination and strict adherence to the stipulations of the document, so too are the heirs of the Abrahamic promises to be determined.

The Hope of Israel - What Is It?

Philip Mauro

Written from the historic Amillennial perspective, this theological classic demonstrates that modern Dispensationalism's doctrine of the restoration of an earthly kingdom to national Israel is a revival of the very same teachings which led to the crucifixion of Christ and the persecution of the early Christians by the apostate Jews. It was because of Paul's views and his preaching that he was so furiously persecuted by the Jews, and was finally sent in chains to Rome. Had he been preaching what the Jews, themselves, believed to be, and what their rabbis had given them as, the true interpretation of the prophecies (namely that God's promise to Israel was a kingdom of earthly character which should have dominion over all the world) they would have heard him with intense satisfaction.

A Whole New World - The Gospel According to Revelation

Greg Uttinger

This little book is a perfect introduction to the fulfilled view of the book of Revelation. With easy to follow reading, it would be a great book to give to someone who has never heard this view before. Readers will realize that an understanding of the events, metaphors, and symbols of the Old Testament are key interpretive tools. A person untaught in the Old Testament and unaware of even a few important chapters in the New Testament (i.e., Matthew 24, Mark 13, Luke 21, etc.) will struggle mightily. However, by using the grid this book provides, the interpreter's understanding will be greatly enhanced.

Against Dispensationalism (Double DVD)

Is the Dispensational hermeneutic a literal hermeneutic? What is the supposed "law of first mention?" Who is true Israel? How does one become a Jew? Was the formation of the "new" state of Israel in 1948 fulfillment of Biblical prophecy? Does the Bible teach that there is a future temple yet to be built? Has dispensationalism broken continuity with the Word of God and Church history? Has dispensationalism in its history taught different ways of salvation?

NiceneCouncil.com's 2008 Conference, Against Dispensationalism: Israel, the Church & Bible Prophecy, was held October 4-5 and the conference DVD features Kenneth L. Gentry, Jr. (Th.D.), Kenneth G. Talbot (Ph.D.) and Jerry Johnson (M. Phil.) covering these and other topics. This two DVD set is divided into seven segments totaling nearly seven hours in length. The lecture titles are:

- * Literally Abused: The Hermeneutics of Dispensationalism
- * The Harlot Rides the Beast
- * Not All of Israel is Israel
- * Matthew and the Demise of Israel
- * Against Dispensationalism Part I
- * Against Dispensationalism Part II
- * Roundtable Discussion (Q&A)

A Comparison of Dispensationalism and Covenant Theology

Richard P. Belcher

Whether it is realized or not, every person has a system of theology. It may be a highly developed one or it may be a very simplistic one. It may be well formulated with a careful and purposeful consistency or it may be just a few convictions about several individual doctrines with no overall relationship to one another or concern for a harmony of the whole.

Two of the strongest systems of our day are known as Dispensationalism and Covenant Theology. Throughout this century they have been challenging one another for consideration in the minds of Christians. In this present work, Dr. Belcher seeks in the first two chapters to state in an objective manner the convictions of both systems. In the final chapter he compares the two in important areas of thinking. In the conclusion he gives instructions for a Christian to consider as he seeks to build a system of theology or as he tries to understand which system of theology is really Scriptural.

A Study of Dispensationalism

A. W. Pink

Early in his spiritual life Pink was a Scofield Reference Bible carrying Christian. Yet around 1929 he began to reject dispensational teachings, as he grew in his understanding of Reformed theology. In this little work, A Study of Dispensationalism, we discover his core complaint against dispensationalism: it destroys the unity and applicability of Scripture. He so vigorously turned from dispensationalism that in these pages he denounces it as a "modern and pernicious error."

Through his characteristically insightful and compelling method he ably demonstrates dispensationalism's destructive tendencies. Against dispensationalism he argues that "there is no conflict between the law and the Gospel of the grace of God." Pink laments that "consciously or unconsciously, Dispensationalists are, in reality, repeating the sin of Jehoiakim, who mutilated God's Word with his penknife (Jer. 36:23)." The Apologetics Group, Inc. (A Division of NiceneCouncil.com) is pleased to offer in print once again, Pink's devastating critique of dispensationalism. This well supplements our concerns as expressed in our "Ninety-Five Theses Against Dispensationalism" (www.AgainstDispensationalism.com). Reading Pink's rebuttal of dispensationalism will show the earnest believer why our Ninety-Five Theses is such a necessary declaration. -- Dr. Kenneth L. Gentry, Jr.

Apocalypse Code

Hank Janegraaff

"Most of what you've heard, read or been told about the End Times is wrong," says popular radio host and bestselling apologist, Hank Janegraaff. "We have come to accept a wide range of beliefs and teachings about the future, about the ultimate battle between good and evil, about the last days, and about how our world will end. And most of these beliefs and teachings are based on fundamental misinterpretations of what the scriptures really say about the end times." The Apocalypse Code helps readers understand what the Bible really says about End Times, and why what we believe matters so much in today's world.

The Apocalypse Code offers sane answers to some very controversial questions:

- * What does it mean to take the book of Revelation (and the rest of the Bible) literally?
- * Who are the "Antichrist" and the "Great Whore of Babylon," and what is the real meaning of "666"?
- * How does our view of the end times change the way we think about the crisis in the Middle East?
- * Are two-thirds of all Jews really headed for an apocalyptic holocaust?

"Filled" With the Spirit

Mike Blume

3 Part Series discussing the issue of why Peter and the 120 were "filled" with the Spirit in Acts 2, and "filled" again in Acts 4. In-depth teaching, with illustrations, explaining how God's Spirit "fills" a believer's spirit, soul and body when the believer is fully yielded to Him. Peter's fear, after being persecuted, caused God's Spirit to "retract" back into Peter's spirit, leaving Peter in possession of the Holy Spirit, but not "filled" with It. Exciting teaching and anointed presentation.

Take a Bite of Eternal Life - Vol. 1

Michael F. Blume

This book explains how the original plan of God for Adam is seen to be the very purpose of the Church of the New Covenant. The Tree of Life, the cherubims and the River of Eden are all found in a restored Garden City in the Book of Revelation, with the Church as the Bride of the great Last Man Adam, Jesus Christ. God has so much more for us in this present life than what we have realized. And our key to unlocking it all lies in understanding the will of God for mankind that was not abandoned after the human race fell into sin so long ago. Learn of the dominion and victory God has for you today in the here and now!

The Coming of the Lord, the Last Days, and the End of the World

By Larry T. Smith

Is Daniel's 70th Week past or future? What about a coming antichrist, the 666—Mark of the Beast, or the Great Tribulation? This simple yet powerfully documented book proves these prophecies, and many more, were fulfilled within the 40-year generation of Jesus Christ. This places them in history, thus making them a great witnesses to the validity of Jesus' prophecies concerning whom He was, when He would come, and the identity and purpose of His Church.
